

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

THE CATHEDRAL PARAGRAPH PSALTER

CONTAINING THE
CANTICLES, PSALMS, AND PROPER PSALMS
ARRANGED IN PARAGRAPHS AND POINTED FOR CHANTING

TOGETHER WITH A SCHEME OF APPROPRIATE CHANTS AND BRIEF
NOTES ON THE PSALTER

EDITED BY THE
REV. J. TROUTBECK, D.D.

(Chaplain in Ordinary to the Queen and Precentor of Westminster).

PRICE THREE SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE.

The principle of Pointing followed is that of the Cathedral Psalter, with slight modifications here and there, suggested by experience, in the treatment of individual verses. For the accents which are used in the Cathedral Psalter to indicate the beginning of the bar of duple time, which connects the free recitation with the metrical part of the chant, are substituted super-imposed musical notes, in accordance with the principle set forth in the Preface to the Cathedral Psalter, so as to indicate exactly, in every verse throughout the Psalter, the best method of dividing the bar into the component parts of a semibreve. Other means also have been adopted to ensure clearness and promote facility

Prefixed to the new Psalter is a Scheme of Chants and some brief Notes on the History of the Psalter and the Characteristics of each Psalm.

THIRD EDITION (REVISED AND GREATLY ENLARGED).

Containing 600 Chants. Price 2s. 6d.; Cloth, 3s.

PIANO. f

The first system of the piano accompaniment, marked 'PIANO. f'. It consists of a grand staff with a treble and bass clef. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The time signature is 4/4. The music begins with a series of chords in the bass, followed by a melodic line in the treble. The tempo is marked 'Allegro maestoso' with a quarter note equal to about 88 beats per minute.

The second system of the piano accompaniment, continuing the grand staff. It features a more active melodic line in the treble with many sixteenth and thirty-second notes, while the bass provides a steady harmonic support.

The third system of the piano accompaniment. The treble part continues with rapid sixteenth-note passages, and the bass part has some longer note values with ties.

The fourth system of the piano accompaniment. It includes a dynamic marking of f (forte) in the bass. The music shows a continuation of the themes established in the previous systems.

The fifth system of the piano accompaniment, the final system on this page. It concludes with a series of chords in both hands.

KING BULBOUS.

A COMIC OPERA.

FOR SCHOOLS AND CLASSES.

WRITTEN BY P. H. CRIB.

COMPOSED BY
H. FESTING JONES.

ARGUMENT.

The plot turns upon the attachment of two pages—who are, of course, really young princes from another court—and two princesses. The King is given to study the gastronomic art, and his Queen Skinaflinta is thrifty to an abnormal degree, besides being consumed with anger at the “forwardness” of the pages. During a pic-nic of the whole Court party two robbers abduct the princesses, and, as one might suppose, the rescue is duly effected in the nick of time by the bold brave pages, and in the end, when the real rank of the pages is revealed, the much wished-for union is happily consummated.

ARGUMENT.

Gerda and Kaye are playfellows, but the latter, through the spells of the Snow Queen and her attendant Spirits, is carried away from his native town and imprisoned in an ice fortress, where even his heart is in danger of being frozen.

Gerda mourns him as dead, till assured by the Flower Fairies that he still lives, when she wanders northward in search of him.

A Witch in Finland speeds her on her way, and after many dangers she reaches the Snow Queen's palace, and finds Kaye. Her warm tears thaw his cold heart and dissolve the spell that binds him, and together they return to sunshine and happiness.

A WOODLAND DREAM.

CANTATA.

FOR THE USE OF SCHOOLS, ACADEMIES, AND COLLEGES.

SHAPCOTT WENSLEY.

COMPOSED BY
J. A. MOONIE.

ARGUMENT.

Mabel, wandering in the woods, is allured from the path by a butterfly, which, having led her in pursuit as far as an enchanted oak tree, suddenly changes to the Queen of the Fairies. Stepping into the hollow trunk they descend to the radiant home of the Fairy, and are greeted by the Fays. The Queen explains that, hurt by the apathy of mortals, she has brought Mabel to be taught that Fairies will not be slighted. Mabel's song explaining why the modern schoolgirl is inclined to ignore Fairies causes great indignation. At a signal from the Queen the Gnomes rush to secure their prisoner, when suddenly all the lights are extinguished. Mabel, who has been asleep under the oak tree, is awakened by the friends who have come in quest of her.

THE WAXWORK CARNIVAL.

A HUMOROUS OPERETTA.

FOR SCHOOLS AND CLASSES.

B. PAGE.

COMPOSED BY A. RICHARDS.

ARGUMENT.

Julius Caesar and Mary, Queen of Scots, are engaged, and arrange with the Waxworks to be married and hold high carnival in their room. Unfortunately, some nineteen hundred years previously, Julius Caesar had plighted troth with the proud English Queen, Boadicea, who, hearing of his faithlessness, stops the ceremony by announcing an action for breach of promise. This rouses the indignation of the Chorus, who in the second part give vent to their woes; Julius Caesar comforts them by the assurance that Henry VIII. has looked favourably on Boadicea, and it is highly probable some agreement may be made. Eventually two marriages take place instead of one, and Henry and Boadicea, Julius Caesar and Mary are united amid great rejoicings, which, however, are brought to an abrupt close by the clock announcing daybreak, and the Waxworks go to sleep as the curtain falls.
